§ 1.706-3T Temporary regulations under the Tax Reform Act of 1986 and the Revenue Act of 1987 (temporary).

(a) Certain tax-exempt partners disregarded—(1) General rule. In determining the taxable year (the “current year”) of a partnership under section 706(b) and the regulations thereunder, a partner that is tax-exempt under section 501(a) shall be disregarded if such partner was not subject to tax, under chapter 1 of the Code, on any income attributable to its investment in the partnership during the partnership’s taxable year immediately preceding the current year. However, if a partner that is tax-exempt under section 501(a) was not a partner during the partnership’s immediately preceding taxable year, such partner will be disregarded for the current year if the partnership reasonably believes that the partner will not be subject to tax, under chapter 1 of the Code, on any income attributable to such partner’s investment in the partnership during the current year.

(2) Example. The provisions of paragraph (a)(1) of this section may be illustrated by the following example.

Example. Assume that partnership A has historically used the calendar year as its taxable year. In addition, assume that A is owned by 5 partners, 4 calendar year individuals (each owning 10 percent of A’s profits and capital) and a tax-exempt organization (owning 60 percent of A’s profits and capital). The tax-exempt organization has never had unrelated business taxable income with respect to A and has historically used a June 30 fiscal year. Finally, assume that A desires to retain the calendar year for its taxable year beginning January 1, 1987. Under these facts and but for the special rule in paragraph (a)(1) of this section, A would be required under section 706(b)(1)(B)(i) to change to a year ending June 30, for its taxable year beginning January 1, 1987. However, under the special rule provided in paragraph (a)(1) of this section, and assuming the optional effective date provided in paragraph (c) of this section is chosen, the partner that is tax-exempt is disregarded, and A must retain the calendar year, under section 706(b)(1)(B)(i), for its taxable year beginning January 1, 1987.

(b) Effect of partner elections under section 444. For purposes of section 706(b)(1)(B), any section 444 election by a partner in a partnership shall be taken into account in determining the taxable year of the partnership. See example 4 of § 1.7519-1T(d).

(c) Effective date. The provisions of this section are generally effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987. However, a partnership may, at its option, apply the provisions of this section for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986.
